

BRIEF INTRO:

Matthew embodies a globalized financial profile. He is from the United States and holds advanced academic degrees & works in financial services on 3 continents.

He has a background as a sub-prime mortgage broker in the United States, Matthew brings both consumer-facing and back-office financial services experiences to his role.

Matthew leads the Trends & Scenario Group, a management consultancy that helps organizations integrate scenario planning modules and early warning systems into their processes. He has developed a trend and scenario model for the financial services industry.

He lives in Denmark, and has a 1 year old son for whom he works to make the world a more stable place.

Personal Details	Date of Birth: 02 June 1979 Telephone: Address:	Nationality: USA Email:
Qualifications/ Education	MSc. (2009) Copenhagen Business School (Denmark) EGP (2008) IESA, Public Administration (Venezuela) BS (2001) St. John’s University (USA)
Financial sector Experience	Finance Officer (2001-2003) Wells Fargo (Minneapolis-Hawaii) Mortgage Broker (2003-2007) Various (Hawaii-Minneapolis-Copenhagen), Copenhagen Compliance Project Assistant (2007+)
Functional Expertise	Risk identification & assessment; Scenario , contingency & continuity planning; Early warning systems; Stress-testing; Audit committee; Trend Analysis; Strategic planning cycles; Workshop facilitation.
Systems Experience	SEO, WP
Key Skills	Risk identification, Risk Assessment, Early Warning Systems, Stress-testing, Audit Committee, Scenario Planning.
Languages	English- native; Spanish- fluent; Danish- proficient	